

FINGER LAKES
INSTITUTE

HOBART AND WILLIAM SMITH
COLLEGES

YOU ARE INVITED!

FL-PRISM Spring Partnership Meeting

Friday, April 8, 2016 • 1 - 4 p.m.

Montezuma Audubon Center (MAC)
2295 NY-89, Savannah, NY 13146

1 p.m.	Welcome and meeting objective
1-1:10	Hilary Mosher, Coordinator, FL-PRISM Updates from the PRISM, 2015-2016 Highlights, 2016-2017 Work Plan, Strategic Plan and Annual Report Update, Report of 2016-2017 Subcontract program
Final reports for 2015 - 2016 Subcontract Awards
1:10-1:25	Chris Lajewski, Center Director, Montezuma Audubon Center 'Introduction to the MAC and Invasive Species Education and Outreach Program (MARSH!) at the MAC'
1:25-1:40	Kathryn Amatangelo, Assistant Professor, Department of Environmental Science and Biology, The College at Brockport 'People and Plants: Does the Suburban Landscape Support Native Species?'
1:40-1:55	Eva Sztchmiller, Technician, Onondaga County Soil and Water Conservation District 'Selective Preservation of Ash Trees Through Trunk Injection in Response to the Presence of Emerald Ash Borer in Onondaga County'
1:55-2:10	Bill Brown, Assistant Professor, Division of Natural Resources, Keuka College 'Managing Invasive Wild Parsnip Through Removal and Replacement with Native Plants'
2:10-2:25	Kevin Farrell, Land Steward Director, Genesee Land Trust 'Managing Invasive Plants to Facilitate Forest Regeneration at Island Cottage Woods Preserve'
2:25-2:30	Stand up, stretch legs and arms, sit back down
2:30-2:45	Chris Manchester, Sustainability Manager, Town of Dewitt 'Slowing the Spread; Mitigate, Monitor, and Manage EAB'
2:45-3:05	James Balyszak, Hydrilla Task Force of the Cayuga Lake Watershed 'Cayuga Lake Watershed Hydrilla Project: Hydrilla and Plant Community Monitoring and Sampling'
3:05-3:20	Hilary Lambert, Steward, Executive Director, Cayuga Lake Watershed Network 'Doubling Down on Hydrilla and Hemlock Woolly Adelgid Across the Cayuga Lake Watershed'
3:20-3:40	Carrie Marschner, Invasive Species Specialist, Cornell University School of Integrated Plant Science 'Finger Lakes Hemlock Initiative'
3:40-4:00	Closing remarks, networking, and tour of Montezuma Audubon Center