

HOBART AND WILLIAM SMITH COLLEGES

FINGER LAKES
INSTITUTE

Welcome to the

2019 Finger Lakes PRISM Partner Meeting,

Thursday, June 27, 10am-2pm,

Gorham Lodge, Onanda Park, Canandaigua, NY

Agenda

10:00am	Introductions and Welcome to Onanda Park, Canandaigua, NY Hilary R. Mosher, Finger Lakes Institute
	Partner Roundtable Discussion and Updates- 3min programmatic updates and show and tell (resources, specimen collection, and materials exchange)
	Finger Lakes PRISM Status Update- year in review, progress report, and summer plans, Hilary R. Mosher, Finger Lakes PRISM Coordinator
10:45-11:15	Terrestrial Invasive Species Program at The College at Brockport Katie Amatangelo, Assistant Professor, The College at Brockport, SUNY
11:15-11:45	Hemlock Woolly Adelgid Update Carri Marschner, Invasive Species Specialist, NYS Hemlock Initiative, Cornell University
11:45-12:15	Spotlight Invasives: Spotted Lanternfly and Oak Wilt Mark Gooding, Regional Forester, Division of Lands and Waters, NYS DEC
12:15-12:45	Break for Lunch (snacks available, BYOL)
12:45-1:15	Mapping the Spread and Impact of Starry Stonewort in Canandaigua Lake Bruce Gilman, Retired Professor and Director of Muller Field Station, FLCC
1:15-1:45	Macrophyte Survey Update and Training in the Region Patty Wakefield-Brown, Education and Outreach Program Manager
1:45-2:00	Wrap-up and discussion
2:00-3:00 Optional	Macrophyte Survey Training- additional Macrophyte id, survey methodology, and program workshop- on site and at lake Patty Wakefield-Brown, Education and Outreach Manager

