

WANTED IN BROOME COUNTY: SPOTTED LANTERNFLY

Spotted Lanternfly was recently found in Broome County.

Stop this pest from further damaging our region.

Nymph

Adult

Egg Mass

IF SEEN, PLEASE E-MAIL PHOTOS TO:
SpottedLanternfly@agriculture.ny.gov

HELP STOP THE SPREAD OF SPOTTED LANTERNFLY

DESCRIPTION:

- One inch long
- Gray-brown forewings with black spots
- Bright red underwings
- Gathers on trees, especially Tree of Heaven

VIOLATIONS:

Spotted Lanternfly is an invasive pest with several prior offenses:

- Destroying crop and plant species
- Vandalizing with black mold
- Threatening food, beer and wine industries
- Sabotaging local economy

SCAN
FOR MORE
INFO

Department of Environmental Conservation

300 Pulteney Street, Geneva, NY 14456