

WANTED IN THE FINGER LAKES

SPOTTED LANTERNFLY

TAKE A PHOTO AND E-MAIL TO:
SpottedLanternfly@agriculture.ny.gov

WANTED FOR DESTRUCTION OF CROPS & PROPERTY

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Spotted Lanternfly is an invasive pest known for:

- Destroying crop and plant species
- Vandalizing with black mold
- Threatening food, beer and wine industries
- Sabotaging the local economy

Spotted Lanternfly is often misidentified as other common insects. Here's how to spot it:

- One inch long
- Gray-brown forewings with black spots
- Bright red underwings
- Gathers on trees, especially tree of heaven

Nymph

Adult

Open Wings

NEW YORK STATE
INVASIVE SPECIES
MANAGEMENT

Department of Environmental Conservation

Funding for this material provided via the
Environmental Protection Fund